

Technical supervision services within “Assistance in development of social infrastructure – improvement of the primary rural medicine (USIF VII)”

Client

Ukrainian Social Investment Fund (USIF)

Country

Ukraine

Duration

from 03.2021

Due to the war in Ukraine, the Assignment was put on hold

Services of iC

- Technical supervision of construction works
- Monitoring the implementation of environmental, social and health and safety measures on site

Project objectives

Provision of technical supervision services within “Assistance in development of social infrastructure – improvement of the primary rural medicine (USIF VII)” in order to improve the primary health care conditions in the East of Ukraine

Project description

The Ukrainian Social Investment Fund engaged the Consultant to provide technical supervision services for subprojects in the South-Eastern Region in the frames of USIF VII to monitor the progress of construction, including quality, scope, and cost of works.

Due to the war in Ukraine, the Assignment was put on hold in 2022

Project data

The total area of premises - 3,887.4 m<sup>2</sup>

Project specifics

Nine primary health care facilities located in Zaporizhzhia, and the Ukraine-controlled part of the Donetsk region are subject to modernization. The Consultant provided services on technical supervision according to Ukrainian regulations as well as selected Engineer's services

Services

- Organizational and consulting support during construction works;
- Verification of the materials' compliance with the technical specifications;
- Control over the Contractors' compliance with design solutions and construction technology;
- Verification of the scope and quality of the construction works presented for payment in accordance with the design specifications and estimates, as well as executive documentation;
- Providing photo reports of all hidden works and defects detected during construction;
- Registration of the scope of construction / installation works performed, accepted, and paid, as well as any costs related to the defects' elimination;
- Control over the completeness and quality of documents prepared by the Contractors at the stage of preparation for commissioning of completed facilities;
- Advisory support to customers;
- Control over the implementation of preventive environmental and social measures foreseen by the USIF and relevant Environmental and Social Management Plans at the facilities